Dandelion

removes the cause of kidney trouble

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 3517. A healthy kidney is a filter. The blood goes in one end of the kidney full of poisonous and waste material. It comes out from the other end perfectly pure. Like all filters, the kidneys get out of order. The trouble is only slight at first, but rapidly becomes dangerous if neglected because the kidneys become choked with refuse and the result is a leaking filter, full of holes and ulcers, with the natural consequence that the whole system becomes poisonous and the blood contaminated with uric acid. Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets act directly upon the kidneys and remove the cause of the trouble. In other words, they repair the leaking filter and make it clean and healthy. The coming of the spring was suggested in every branch and bloom, and the faint scent of the blossoms of May was carried far into the corridors of the great hotel.

Miss Gliman entered, attended by Miss Shaw. Her wedding gown was of white satin. The ceremony was exceedingly brief and simple. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Dr. J. L. Clarke; pastor of the Bushwick Avenue Congregational Church, Brooklyn. The bride was given away by her father.

There had been much speculation concerning the identity of the clergyman who was to officiate, and it had been understood that several ministers who had been approached on the subject had declined to perform the ceremony on account of the fact that Mr. Corey's first wife had obtained a divorce.

Magistrate Finn Hoaxed.

It had been thought that some civil officer would be asked to tie the nuptial knot.

and Mrs. Corey left the hotel shortly after-Hoboken, where they boarded the Kaiser Wilhelm II, on which they are now at sea on their bridal journey.

It was a wedding which picturesquely ignored convention and tradition. The day the bride had named was originally May 13, but she changed the time into the 14th by a quarter of an hour, and thus set the apprehensions of the superstitious at rest. The wedding supper usually follows the ceremony, but in this case it preceded it bride was Miss Frances Erskine Shaw, who recently accompanied the bride from Lon-

Brought Parisian Trousseau. Miss Gilman, since her arrival a few days ago on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, which took her away from these shores as Mrs. Corey, has been living in the Hotel Gotham. She brought from Paris, where she occupied a villa for two years, her elaborate trousseau. The days before the wedding were occupied by shopping expeditions and by visits to the theater and in automobile journeys. Her apartments were on the sixth floor of the hotel and the wedding ceremony took place on the third. Two suites, Nos. 3 and had been especially decorated. In the drawing room of the one to the north the wedding supper was served. The table was a large square one, on which twenty-seven covers were laid. In the center was a great heap of bridesmaid roses, while festoons of smilax and roses, suspended from the middle of the ceiling, were curved gracefully, drooping to the four corners. Here the

WARSHIPS STILL AT CORTEZ. More Trouble Over Presidency of Honduras Expected.

MOBILE, Ala., May 14.-Capt. Holm of the Norwegian steamer Brattan, which arrived vesterday afternoon from Puerto Cortez. Honduras, reports that when he left Puerto Cortez the persons arrested by order of Commander Fullam of the gunboat Marietta had been released from their prison aboard the American war vessel. Capt. Holm says the Marietta and Paducah were still at Puerto Cortez doing police duty.

Passengers who arrived on the Brattan say there is no doubt about Sierra taking charge of the government of Honduras as president, despite the efforts of the friends of Policarpo Bonilla. Arias, another leader.

Gave Officer "the Silence." ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 14.-The whol membership of the 1st Battalion of the Brigade of Midshipmen has been restricted for an indefinite period to the confines of the institution as a result of its members having "given the silence" to Lieut. Commander C. B. McVay, jr., one of the disci-pline officers. The members of the bat-talion have taken exception to McVay's mode of investigating their actions, and de-termined to administer this form of rebuke to him. The "silence" is as old as the navy termined to administer this form of reduke to him. The "stlence" is as old as the navy itself. It is in the nature of a boycott. At the time agreed for its application those participating in it keep absolutely silent during the whole of some meal at which the officer is present in the midshipmen's mess hall. Ordinarily this dining room at mealtime is a very noisy place, and silence when the 800 midshipmen are assembled there is decidedly noticeable. When it was directed against Lieut. Commander McVay that officer withheld the order for the 1st Battalion to leave the room a the end of the meal after having dismissed the 2d Battalion. He sat quietly at the atble for nearly two hours, attempting by this means to force the remaining midshipmen to break their silence, but without effect. Eventually he dismissed them and reported the matter to the commandant. As all the members of the 1st Battalion participated, all were punished for disrespect to an officer.

SOTHERN AND MARLOWE 'BOOED' London Audience Disliked Portrayal of Henry VIII.

LONDON, May 14.-Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern were last night called before the curtain of the theater where they are playing and were hooted and "booed." The British audience resented the realistic portrayal of Henry VIII in an American play. It was the first presentation of "When Knighthood was in Flower." All went well until the last act. The house was well filled with a reasonably enthusiastic audience.

King Henry appears in the last act as a jovial but undignified monarch. The part was only slightly exaggerated from better tonic sold. Fifty

This was the first time either artist had ever been subjected to an experience of this sort. Miss Marlowe smiled sweetly, however, and neither she nor Mr. Sothern was ruffled.

London audiences frequently treat their greatest favorites in this manner when they are displeased with the play or the players, but usually they are more considerate toward visitors.

You can select your lot in advance at North Randle Highlands before the great sale on the 30th of May, when there will be two bands of music and refreshments on the ground. Come out and spend the day-you can take your lunch under the trees or by the side of the brook and enjoy the bracing air from the Highlands and the grand panoramic view of Washington. Don't lose this opportunity, if you did the last, to secure a lot or a villa site for a home or investment. You can go out and make a personal inspection of the property free of cost, and secure a choice lot before the great opening day, the 30th of May.
